Upcoming Events

EYE
2016

The EYE 2016 event will take place in the European Parliament in Strasbourg on the 21st and 22nd of May 2016.

It is a unique chance for the young Europeans to share ideas, opinions and perspectives on the current issues related to them. It is also an opportunity to participate to artistic performances and spectacles that show the cultural diversity within the European Union.

The European Youth Event it is not only for those who can be there in person. You can also take part to the event online!

Training Course: Listen to what you are listening!

This Training Course deals with the topic of the presentation of women in the media, especially in the lyrics of popular songs, in the clips and comments of these videos. Due to the observation that there are only a few tools to educate young people about this problem, this training course gives the opportunity to raise the awareness of women's representation and to acquire skills that will enable the participants to create and implement projects at local and European level.

For this training course, AFJIC is looking for participants from Sweden and Ukraine.

If you want to be a part of this course please contact tclisten@gmail.com

Date: 17th-27th July 2016

Place: Strasbourg, France

Training Course: Breaking boundaries through dance: social and professional inclusion of youth

DANCERS
BORDERS

Designed for youth workers and young people from Estonia, Moldova, Morocco, Palestine, Turkey, Ukraine and France, this training course aims to help young people with fewer opportunities to use art (mainly dance) to fight discrimination, to enter the labor market and to increase social cohesion.

For this training course, Dancers without Borders are looking for participants from Estonia, Ukraine, Palestine and Morocco.

If you are interested to participate, please send an email to: dugtraining2016@gmail.com.

Date: 11th-21st August 2016
